San Diego is truly "America's Finest City." A modern metropolis (second largest in California) and a popular year-round resort, San Diego spreads from the coast to the desert, including cliffs, mesas, hills, canyons and valleys. San Diego also surrounds one of California's greatest natural harbors which has been a dominant factor in determining the city's history, economy and development.

Meteorologists claim San Diego as the country's only area with perfect climate. This ideal year-round environment posts an average daytime temperature of 70 degrees, with an annual rainfall average of less than 10 inches. Most days are sunny, with humidity generally low, even in the summer. The climate, attractive setting and recreational facilities make San Diego "America's Finest City."

According to Sports Illustrated, "For sheer numbers of participants, diversity of pursuits of involvement, San Diego must rank as the sports fitness capital of the U.S." Sports are a major feature of the San Diego lifestyle. One can sail, swim, surf, scuba dive, snorkel, wind-surf on 70 miles of public beach or golf at any of the over 80 golf courses throughout the county. Balboa Park, a 1,158-acre recreation and cultural center, offers 25 tennis courts, two gymnasiums, two municipal golf courses, and one of the nation's finest zoos. Mission Bay Park is a 4,600-acre playground for jogging, fishing, bicycling, tennis, golf, jet skiing and kite flying.

As well as participating in recreational activities, San Diego supports their professional teams -- the NFL Chargers play at Qualcomm Stadium, and the San Diego Padres play in the new Petco Park. During college football bowl week, San Diego annually hosts the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl in late December. During 1998, Qualcomm Stadium hosted the Super Bowl game between Denver and Green Bay; followed by the World Series between the San Diego Padres and the New York Yankees. The Super Bowl returned to San Diego in 2003. Whatever sporting activity there is, it's here in San Diego -- the sports capital of the U.S.!

Petco Park, home of the San Diego Padres, is San Diego's new downtown ballpark.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO

The University of San Diego is an independent Catholic institution of higher education. Founded in 1949, USD is located on 180 acres overlooking Mission Bay, San Diego Harbor and the Pacific Ocean. The campus is named Alcalá Park and is located just 10 minutes from downtown San Diego and the world famous San Diego Zoo. Historic Old Town is just minutes away as well. The city of San Diego along with this campus traces their origins to fifteenth century Spain. The campus was named after a Spanish village near Madrid - Alcalá de Henares. Founded by the Greeks as Complutum, the village was later renamed Al Kala (the Castle) by the Moslems. Christians recaptured the village centuries later and founded a university, the University of Alcalá, whose buildings became the inspiration for USD's style.

THE CAMPUS

The USD campus is regarded as one of the most architecturally unique institutions in the country, featuring major buildings designed in an ornamental 16th century Spanish Renaissance style. Since 1984, USD has completed numerous major construction and expansion projects. In 2000, the Jenny Craig Pavilion, a 5,100-seat athletic center, opened its doors as home to USD volleyball and basketball. In the fall of 2001, the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice opened on the west end of campus and a new Science and Technology Center recently opened for the 2003-04 academic year. A five-story Spanish Renaissance parking garage (1,100 spaces) was completed in 1998. A landscaped fountain plaza was finished in the fall of 1995, connecting the entrances of the Immaculata and Hughes Administration Center. In 1992, the university completed the 45,000 square-foot Loma Hall, which includes an expanded bookstore, a larger mail center, classrooms, and laboratories.

ACADEMICS

USD enrolls more than 7,600 students who have a choice of more than 60 undergraduate and graduate degree programs. The university's academic units include the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Schools of Business Administration, Education, Law, and Nursing. Class size generally averages between 15-25 students with the student to teacher ratio being 14:1. Over 97 percent of USD's full-time faculty hold doctorates.

In the annual ratings of the country's colleges and universities, published by U.S. News & World Report, USD moved from the regional to national category in 1994. The university now consistently ranks among the top schools in the United States.

ATHLETICS

The University of San Diego is a member of the West Coast Conference for nearly all sports and competes in 16 intercollegiate sports on the NCAA Division I level. The football team just completed its 13th season in the Pioneer Football League. Women's sports include: basketball, cross country, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball. Men's sports include: baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, football, rowing, soccer and tennis. Since 1990, USD teams have made 49 NCAA post-season appearances; garnered 56 All-American selections; had 37 Conference Coaches of the Year; won 15 conference championships; and 4 WCC Scholar Athletes of the Year. At the end of the 2005 football season, Jim Harbaugh was named the Pioneer Football League's Coach of the Year after leading the Toreros to the best football season in school history. USD won 11 games with one loss, claimed its first ever PFL championship and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the Sports Network poll for mid majors.

Cunningham Baseball Stadium

Cunningham Stadium, the home of University of San Diego baseball, is one of the nation's most beautiful collegiate ballparks.

Situated in a natural amphitheater, Cunningham stadium is one of the coziest venues on the west coast. Just beyond the right field wall, the Douglas F. Manchester Residence Hall overlooks the picturesque home of the Toreros, creating an imposing view for left-handed hitters. Cunningham Stadium includes 4-lighted batting cages that allow players to hone their skills.

For every bit of beauty that envelops Cunningham Stadium, there is an equal dose of tradition. The Toreros have won the 2002 and 2003 WCC Championships, moving on to the NCAA regionals both years as well.

Dimensions at Cunningham are 309 feet down the left field line, 375 feet at left-center field, 395 feet to straightaway center, right-centerfield 385 feet, and 329 feet to right field. The fence is 8 feet high.

With a capacity of 1,200, all seats are backed for spectator comfort. Field-level box seats are also available behind home plate. Spectators are also comforted by a full-service concessions stand, and public facilities.

Prior to the 2003 campaign, Cunningham received several significant additions. A "Turf Tech" synthetic grass surface was installed in the foul areas between first and third base. Secondly, a new press box was built at the top of Cunningham that keeps the central architectural theme of 16th century Spanish renaissance alive, creating a superb facility to house media and game operations staff.

In addition, a new public address system has been added, replacing the sound system that had been in place since Cunningham Stadium opened in 1970. The stadium also has a concessions stand that services crowd needs as well as a brand new fully lighted scoreboard. The playing surface consists of "Bullseye" Bermuda grass and the dirt portion of the infield is crushed red brick, which can be found at many major league stadiums.

The Stadium also features five batting cages that are roofed, fenced and all have lights. Three of the cages are 60 feet in length and the remaining two tunnels are each 40 feet long.

In 1988 the stadium was named after John Cunningham, who led the Torero baseball team for 34 years. Coach Cunningham is still active within the athletic department and is currently the Director of Transportation.

USD CHAMPIONSHIP MENTORING PROGRAM

The mission for the mentoring program is to provide the student-athletes in the baseball program at USD with a network of community leaders, campus administrators, faculty, and staff who will serve as advisors, guides, and role models to our players. Our game plan is to assemble a group of leaders who share an interest in helping the members of the team make the transition from high school, junior college, or foreign countries into the collegiate world. Specifically, we would like them to communicate with your student-athlete regarding anything but baseball (e.g., their future, their appearance, the way they speak and carry themselves, etc.). We are confident that these young men will benefit greatly from their relationship with the mentors.

USD mentors are individuals who serve as "shining examples" to these young men. It is USD's firm belief that our players can never get enough help from positive role models. USD's team will always consist of athletes from a variety of ethnic, social, and economic backgrounds. These players can all use direct exposure to career-oriented people who know what it takes to be successful. If our players have a network of campus-wide and community based professionals helping them transition to college and maintain their "focus," they will find themselves ahead of the game.

TOREROS AIM FOR RETURN TO REGIONALS

Sure the majority of the infield is gone and so too is second-round draft choice, and Friday starter Josh Butler. But the cupboard is far from bare for the University of San Diego baseball team entering the 2007 season as USD returns two freshman All-Americans in Brian Matusz and Josh Romanski as well as a wealth of offensive talent returning from the 2006 team that made a trip to the NCAA Regionals.

The goals for this team are the same as they always have been, to win the West Coast Conference championship, make it into the NCAA Regionals and eventually on to the College World Series. San Diego head coach Rich Hill also has the team focused on peak performance.

"Our goals in our program are all centered around peak performance on a daily basis," said Hill. "The most important game is the next game, so with that philosophy everything is centered on developing our players to be the best they can be on game day. We will be training like our hair is on fire, training like mad men. We will not rest until this program achieves its ultimate goal of getting to the College World Series."

San Diego will look to some senior leadership to help them achieve their goals, and what better seniors to turn to than Jordan Abruzzo, Shane Buschini, Daniel Magness and Anthony Slama. Abruzzo and Slama were both second day draft selections in 2006 and will now be focused on helping this team achieve its goals.

Abruzzo will make his return as the starting catcher for the Toreros after a solid 2006 campaign that saw him take home second-team All-WCC honors. This past season, Abruzzo finished with a .314 batting average, led the team in doubles (18), home runs (8) and in RBI (58). Abruzzo was peaking at the right time for the Toreros in 2006, as he tied a program record for most single-game home runs hit (3), most RBI (8) and most hits (5) in the second game of the NCAA Regionals against Saint Louis.

Backing up Abruzzo as well as splitting time with him behind the plate will be junior Logan Gelbrich. This past season Gelbrich split his time between the designated hitter and catcher positions with Abruzzo and posted solid numbers. For the season, Gelbrich hit .322 with five doubles and 10 RBI.

"Both Jordan Abruzzo and Logan Gelbrich are upper echelon Division I catchers in my opinion," said Hill. "We just have that luxury here and we are very fortunate to have two catchers that are of that caliber."

Nick McCoy also makes his return to the Toreros to add depth to the catcher position. McCoy saw limited action in 2006.

The continued depth at catcher sees two new faces in Stuart Kam as well as Steven Chatwood. Kam is a freshman from Kamehameha High School in Honolulu, Hawaii. He was a three-time all-league performer and as a senior he was named first-team All-State as he helped his team reach the state championship game.

Chatwood is a freshman out of Redlands East Valley High School in Yucipa, Calif., where he was a three-time All-Citrus League performer. He gradually increased his hitting stats over the course of his outstanding career and he capped off his career with a .470 batting average this past season.

Moving to first base, Magness makes his return as the only other returning infielder for USD. Magness was a solid force for the Toreros in 2006 and the coaching staff expects nothing less from him this season. As a junior he hit .313 with 56 hits, seven doubles, two home runs and 22 RBI.

Jose Valerio could be a possible back-up for Magness at first base. Valerio was able to step in this past season and play a huge role for the Toreros down the stretch. He played in seven games with four starts at first base. Valerio had a huge hit in the bottom of the ninth inning to keep a rally alive against Santa Clara. Valerio posted a .267 batting average in those seven games.

The Toreros will have to replace the remainder of the infield with the departure of first-team All-WCC shortstop Steve Singleton to pro baseball, as well as second baseman Keoni Ruth and third baseman Ryan Lilly. With the loss of these key infielders, some may wonder if it is a case of rebuilding or reloading?

"It is a case of rebuilding, especially early on," said Hill. "When you lose the heart and soul of the infield, Steve Singleton, who has done extremely well in pro baseball, it will make things difficult. But we are going to be looking to Sean Nicol to fill that void."

Nicol is a shortstop transfer from the University of Portland and is expected to come in and help the Toreros not skip a beat defensively in the infield. This past season with the Pilots, Nicol was the team's third best hitter with a .303 batting average, had 61 hits, 11 doubles, four home runs and 26 RBI.

"There is going to be a learning curve with Sean Nicol at shortstop, but he is more than capable of blazing his own trail and not trying to fill the shoes of a Steve Singleton. If you look at the quality shortstops we have had here at USD, it has been an impressive run, and Sean is another one of those in a line of great shortstops," said Hill.

At second base there will be a familiar face to Torero fans, Justin Snyder. Snyder will move from center field to second, his more natural position. As a sophomore Snyder opened a lot of eyes around the WCC as he had a break-out type of season. In 2006, Snyder served as the USD lead-off hitter and he responded with a .301 batting average, 66 hits, 14 doubles, three home runs and 33 RBI en route to earning an All-WCC honorable mention.

"Justin Snyder is really going to surprise some people. He turns the double play as well as anyone on the west coast and has as strong an arm as anyone in the country," said Hill.

At third base, Kevin Hansen will also move in from the outfield to fill the hole left by the departure of Ryan Lilly. As a sophomore, Hansen posted solid numbers as he hit .276 with 53 hits, five doubles and 27 RBI. Hansen was best known this past season for his ability to lay down the bunt and advance runners into scoring position.

Now for the outfield. The WCC Freshman of the Year, Josh Romanski, makes his return and will move from left field to center field, as well as serve as a Saturday starter for the Toreros. Romanski was a valuable two-way player for the Toreros this past season as he hit .287 with 45 hits, six doubles, four home runs and 20 RBI, while also serving as the primary closer for USD. On the mound, Romanski led the team with five saves, while posting a 4.50 ERA and a record of 5-4. For his efforts, he was selected second-team All-WCC and earned a Freshman All-American distinction from Collegiate Baseball.

"Josh gets a great jump on the ball and tracks it extremely well," said Hill. "The challenge for us there is that we also see Josh as a starting pitcher, being a Saturday starter. So it is going to be a challenge for him to DH and be a starting pitcher, but I am confident he will be successful this season."

In left field, the Toreros will look to a junior transfer from UCLA, Mike Metzger. The coaching staff sees him bouncing back and forth between left and center field. This past season as a Bruin, Metzger played in 25 games with five starts.

Another familiar face will appear in right field for USD, Shane Buschini. Buschini makes his return after a season that saw him hit .290 with 64 hits, 11 doubles, five home runs and 32 RBI. As a sophomore, Buschini led the conference in hitting en route to a first-team All-WCC selection and the coaches think he is ready to return to that form.

Another newcomer who could see time in both right and left field will be freshman James Meador. Meador comes to USD from Ramona High School after a standout career. He is a three-time first-team All-Valley League selection and as a senior he also earned first-team All-State after hitting .510 with 12 home runs.

San Diego's pitching will once again be solid as two of the starting three pitchers from this past season make their return. Sophomore south paw Brian Matusz is projected to be USD's Friday starter. As a freshman, Matusz was named a freshman All-American by both Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America. He posted a 4-3 record with an ERA of 4.25 and fanned 93 batters in 89 innings of work in 2006. This season Matusz has already garnered individual attention as he was named to both the Roger Clemens Award watch list and the Wallace Award watch list.

As mentioned before Romanski is projected to be the Saturday starter and USD will conclude its weekend rotation with the return of junior right-hander Matt Couch. Couch is coming off one of his most impressive seasons as he posted a 4.00 ERA and had a record of 7-5, while throwing in 108 complete innings. For his efforts this past season, he took home All-WCC honorable mention honors.

USD doesn't have a proto typical closer; Hill and the coaching staff are loaded with talent in the bullpen, which could bear well for the Toreros. USD will look to Slama and sophomore Ricardo Pecina for some solid innings of middle relief or as a possible midweek starter. Slama finished his injury plagued season with a 6.18 ERA and a record of 2-0. He was drafted in the 39th round by the Minnesota Twins, but has returned to try and improve his draft status. Pecina returns to the Toreros after a solid 2006 freshman campaign as he posted a 4.42 ERA and had a record of 4-4. Pecina came up huge for the Toreros in the NCAA Regionals. In the final game of the season against Fresno State, Pecina came in for some relief work and was lights out as he threw four scoreless innings allowing USD to climb back into the game.

"Anthony Slama and Ricardo Pecina are probably two of the biggest keys to the success of this team," said Hill. "They have the potential to eat up a good number of innings. Both of those guys could pitch a lot on weekends and either one of them could start on Tuesday's."

Looking at some of the newcomers who could see time on the mound as well are San Diego Player of the Year in 2006, freshman AJ Griffin from Grossmont High School. As a senior he posted an 11-3 record, had a 1.49 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 91 innings of work. As a junior he was selected as the San Diego Pitcher of the Year after posting an 8-3 record and a 1.99 ERA.

Chad Blauer is another member of the bullpen who could see some time as well. The freshman comes to USD after a stand-out career at Edison High School as an outstanding two-way player. As a senior he hit .375 and as a junior he hit .410 en route to earning a first-team All-Sunset League distinction.

Darrin Campbell is another potential freshman that could have a big impact on the Toreros. Campbell was a member of the Aliso Niguel baseball team. He missed the last two seasons as he was recovering from Tommy John surgery. He has fully healed and is expected to see action this season.

Some returners are also expected to see time on the mound as well. Russell Holzhauer makes his return to the Toreros for his junior season. As a sophomore, he posted a 2-3 record with an ERA of 6.91. Fellow classman, Luke Roniger, makes his return for San Diego after a sophomore season that saw him post a 4.50 ERA while making three appearances.

Sophomore right-hander Scott DeNault also returns for the Toreros as he had an impressive freshman campaign. In 2006, DeNault posted a 1-1 record with an ERA of 5.09. DeNault saw more action as the season progressed and became a valuable middle relief pitcher for USD down the stretch.

Michael Lugo also makes his return for the Toreros as a utility player. Lugo saw limited action in 2006 primarily serving as a pinch runner. He, like Valerio, had a huge hit against Santa Clara to help lift the Toreros to a three-game sweep over the Broncos as he went 1-for-1 with one run scored.

USD's final returner was a redshirt from this past season, Brent Planck. Planck was named the Harbor League Player of the Year award and named first-team All-Harbor League as a senior at Madison High School.

USD has several other newcomers that could help them make their return to the NCAA postseason. One of these newcomers is a freshman out of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Kevin Muno. As a senior at Loyola High School, he was named first-team All-Mission League after hitting .400 and registering 30 stolen bases and helping his team advance to the quarterfinals of the CIF playoffs.

Chris Viegas is the next new face in a Torero uniform this season. He hails from Atherton, Calif., and is a graduate of Saint Francis High School. As a senior he hit .378 with two home runs en route to being selected second-team All-WCAL. As a junior he was named third-team All-WCAL after posting a .352 batting average.

Another key newcomer to the USD squad will be Blake Tagmyer. He is a freshman from Grandview High School in Centennial, Colo. He was a two-time first-team All-Centennial League selection and as a senior he hit .520 with eight home runs, while helping his team make a trip to the Elite 8 of the playoffs.

Steve Winnick comes to the Toreros after a standout career at Horizon High School. He helped lead his team to four consecutive Coastal League championships. As a senior he hit .525 en route to being selected first-team All-State for small schools, and a first-team All-CIF Division IV.

One of the keys to the Toreros earning an at large bid into the Regionals in 2006 was their strength of schedule. 2007 is no different, as once again Hill and his coaching staff have put together another strong schedule. Should USD win these tough non-conference games and not win the WCC championship, they should have a good chance at earning another at large berth.

Some of the highlights of the San Diego schedule include a trip to Round Rock, Texas to take on the Texas Longhorns in the second week of the season. The following weekend the Toreros will head to Los Angeles, to take on parental power Southern Cal in a three game set, two in L.A. and one in San Diego.

Add the Colonial Athletic Association perennial power Virginia Commonwealth, followed by Wake Forrest at home, then a rematch with the school that knocked USD out of the NCAA Regionals, a very strong Fresno State team in Fresno, Calif. To close out the non-conference portion of the schedule the Toreros will have to face an always strong University of Houston team and one of the top teams in the Mountain West in UNLV.

Once this non-conference portion of the schedule is over, USD must face a vastly improving WCC slate with Pepperdine, Loyola Marymount and San Francisco, all of who, year in and year out, are tough opponents. Now add in Santa Clara who has one of the better recruiting classes according to Hill as well as Gonzaga and Saint Mary's, and San Diego's schedule is as tough as it has ever been.

"The key is to just take care of business in conference. Last year, I thought the conference was the best that I had seen in my 13 years of coaching in this conference," said Hill. This year, we may not be as strong from top to bottom, but there is way more parity."

San Diego's Rich Hill has built the USD Toreros into one of the most successful Division I baseball programs on the West Coast. The 2007 spring season will be Hill's 20th year as a head coach at the collegiate level, and ninth at USD, having enjoyed 16 winning seasons in 19 years. Since taking over at USD in 1999, Hill has been remarkable in leading the Toreros to eight consecutive winning campaigns, re-writing the school record book en route to claiming back-to-back West Coast Conference Championship titles in 2002 and 2003, and guiding the Toreros to their first-ever at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2006.

In the 2006 season, not only did Hill lead USD back to the post-season, but he also helped guide the Toreros to their highest national ranking at No. 8 in the Collegiate Baseball top-25 poll on Feb. 2, 2006. Other milestones that Hill achieved during this historic season was the team recorded its first win over a No. 1 ranked opponent as they swept the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the opening weekend. Hill became the third coach in the history of the WCC to eclipse the 200 conference wins mark, and he is one win shy of the 600 career wins total with an overall coaching record of 599-420-3.

Under his leadership San Diego has averaged 33 wins per season, including winning a school record 39 games in 2002, a year in which Hill was honored by his peers as the WCC Coach of the Year. Hill became one of the youngest coaches in collegiate history to reach 500 career victories in 2003, taking USD into postseason play and a second consecutive NCAA Regional appearance.

Scheduling the nation's top competition, Hill owns a 266-201-3 (.569) overall record as San Diego's manager. In turn, Hill has brought the school national notoriety, earning a No. 8 national ranking by Collegiate Baseball (2/13/06), its highest in school history.

Following a 35-21 season in 2004, seven of Hill's eight graduating seniors signed professional contracts. That same season a record 10 USD players were recognized as All-WCC performers, with five players being selected in the '04 MLB First Year Player Draft. This past June six more Toreros were drafted and signed by Major League clubs.

The 44-year-old Hill is a proven winner. He has a record of success in each of his three head coaching stops - first at his alma mater Cal Lutheran. In his first head coaching job as the manager at Cal Lu, he won 83% of his games during his final three seasons (1991-93). Hill led Cal Lutheran to a record of 194-76 (.719) over six seasons, including two World Series appearances. His 1992 squad posted a 43-6 record before falling a couple of outs shy of the NCAA Division III title, while the 1993 team finished first in the Western Region with a 32-7 record. Under Hill's guidance, the Kingsmen knocked off Division I opponents such as USC, Pepperdine, San Diego State, UC Santa Barbara and Cal State Northridge. During his six seasons at Cal Lutheran, 92 percent of his players received their degrees

Hill was hired by The University of San Francisco in 1994, taking the Dons from the WCC cellar to a 34-win season in his final year in 1998. During a five-year coaching stint at San Francisco (1994-1998), Hill posted three consecutive winning seasons, including a school best 18 wins in the West Coast Conference in 1998 as the Dons finished tied with USD for third place in the WCC. Over his final three seasons there, Hill guided USF to upper division finishes in the WCC; and posted three straight winning seasons, including two campaigns of 30 or more victories. Hill's track record boasts record-breaking seasons for wins in a single season at Cal Lu (43), USD (39) and Chatham in Cape League (35).

In addition to his collegiate coaching positions, Hill was head coach for the Chatham A's of the Cape Cod League between 1990-93, winning the league title in 1992 with a franchise record of 35-11. He has twice been recognized as the ABCA West Region Coach of the Year (1992, 1993); was the 1992 Cape Cod Baseball League "Manager of the Year"; was twice named the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year (1992, 1993); and twice was the recipient of the California Lutheran Alumni Career Excellence Award (1993, 1994). Hill's assistants have gone on to successful careers in baseball, including five earning head coaching positions, and two with administrative positions with Major League clubs.

Hill has made his mark off the field as well. The past 10 years he has served on the American Baseball Coaches Association Editorial Committee; and has been an advisor with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He started an innovative peer-mentoring program with his USF team. Dons players and coaching staff volunteered at the nearby Hamilton Community Center, reading stories and playing games with homeless children. Furthermore, Hill is a speaker and clinician at various conventions and camps throughout the region.

Hill earned his Bachelor of Arts degree (Physical Education) in 1984 from California Lutheran University. After playing one season with the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 1985 (Single A affiliate in Savannah, Georgia), he returned to his alma mater where he earned his Master of Science degree in Education in 1988. Rich and his wife, Lori, live in San Diego with their two children, Robbie (15) and Lindsey (12).

USD COACHING STAFF

ERIC VALENZUELA

*Assistant Coach
4th Year
Pepperdine '01*

Eric Valenzuela, a key component in the success of San Diego baseball and the development of USD's pitching staff, begins his fourth season as an assistant coach for the Toreros in 2007. Valenzuela made an immediate impact during his first season at USD in 2004. Under his direction the Torero pitching staff led the West Coast Conference in team ERA. All four graduating pitchers from his 2004 staff went on to sign professional contracts at season's end.

Valenzuela continues to recruit and develop some of the nation's top amateur players. Valenzuela spearheaded the recruiting efforts for the 2006 USD recruiting class that was ranked among Baseball America's Dandy Dozen. Valenzuela hasn't stopped there as the 2008 Torero recruiting class has been ranked No. 6 by StudentSportsbaseball.com.

A native of West Covina, Valenzuela returned to Southern California after serving as an assistant coach at St. Mary's College for two seasons (2002 & 2003). While at St. Mary's, Valenzuela coordinated much of the team's community programs, including directing youth camps and clinics. Valenzuela served as the Gaels third base coach, managed recruiting efforts and also directed the team's strength and conditioning program. Valenzuela's background in developing young talent includes managing the pitching staff of the Brewster White Caps of the Cape Code League in 2003.

Valenzuela garnered All-America honors as a prep athlete at Bishop Amat High School and went on to accept a baseball scholarship at Arizona State University where he was a member of the Sun Devil's 1998 College World Series team. After transferring to Pepperdine, Valenzuela would be honored as the Wave's team captain his senior year, leading Pepperdine to the 2001 West Coast Conference Championship title.

Valenzuela graduated from Pepperdine in 2001 with a B.A. in Criminal Justice. His father, Victor, was an assistant boxing coach for the United States in the 1984 Olympic Games and currently runs the Azusa Boxing Club in East Los Angeles. Valenzuela and his wife Betty reside in downtown San Diego.

JAY JOHNSON

2nd Year
Point Loma '01*

Jay Johnson, is entering his second season with the Toreros. During his first season at USD, he was instrumental in helping guide USD back into the postseason, while assisting head coach Rich Hill with all aspects of the game.

Johnson serves as USD's primary hitting coach and also takes on the roll of associate recruiting coordinator. He helped recruit USD's 2008 class, which was ranked No. 6 in the nation by StudentSportsBaseball.com. In his first season, the Toreros ranked first in the WCC in team hitting overall (.310) as well as in conference games (.329).

Johnson, the head coach at nearby Point Loma Nazarene prior to coming to USD, did a remarkable job at PLNU, leading the NAIA Sea Lions to a national ranking as high as No.6 and a 2005 Golden State Athletic Conference-Southern Division Championship. During four seasons at Point Loma Nazarene, three as an assistant before becoming the head coach in 2005, Johnson and the Sea Lions made four consecutive trips to the NAIA Region II Championships and established a Golden State Athletic Conference (GSAC) record with 47 wins in 2004 while claiming the GSAC championship, as well as finishing 3rd in the NAIA College World Series. The 2004 team was also awarded the Hank Burbridge NAIA team Champions of Character award. In the spring of 2005 Johnson guided Point Loma Nazarene to a 37-16 overall mark, winning the 2005 GSAC-Southern Division Championship and finishing the season ranked No. 19 nationally. Seven of Jay's players at PLNU moved on to play professional baseball.

Johnson currently works with San Diego's Tecolote Youth Baseball Academy as the Director of Baseball Operations. His coaching experience also includes posting an 83-30-1 record directing the under-18 Chico Mavericks Baseball Club from 1999-2002 and winning an Armed Forces Championship coaching the U.S. Navy Baseball club in 2003.

An outstanding high school and collegiate athlete, Johnson was the starting second baseman at Point Loma Nazarene in 1999 and 2000, hitting .326 during his senior season in 2000. As a collegiate underclassman, Johnson played at Shasta Junior College. As a prep athlete at Oroville High School, Johnson was a First Team All-CIF Northern Section pick in both baseball and football.

Johnson earned a degree in Physical Education at PLNU in 2001 and later acquired a Master's degree in Physical Education at Azusa Pacific University. Johnson and his wife Erika reside in San Diego.

Jay and Erika Johnson

A native of East Los Angeles, Calif., Mark Viramontes brings seven years of collegiate coaching experience to USD. The 2007 season will be his second as an assistant at San Diego under head coach Rich Hill. Viramontes assumes the roll of USD's catching coach and field supervisor, while also working closely with the team's hitters as an intricate part of the Toreros coaching staff.

In the summer of 2006, Viramontes took over as head coach for the DuPage Dragons of the Central Illinois Collegiate Summer League (CICL). During his first season at the helm, Viramontes guided the Dragons to a franchise-best 25-19 overall record.

His most recent coaching experience came in handling a wide range of duties as an assistant at Division II California State University of L.A. in 2005. As an assistant at East L.A. College from 1999-2004, Viramontes helped the Huskies to three postseason trips including a state finals appearance in 2000. Viramontes has also spent the 2004 & 2005 season's coaching in the Cape Cod Baseball League (CCBL) with the Brewster Whitecaps.

His coaching career began assisting the 1995 varsity program at James A. Garfield High School in Los Angeles and at San Gabriel High School from 1996-1998. He would later become an Associate Scout for the Cincinnati Reds, evaluating baseball talent in inner-city L.A.

The start of the 2007 season marks the start of Ramon Orozco's tenure with the Toreros baseball team under head coach Rich Hill.

Orozco brings a wealth of coaching experience to the USD coaching staff as he was most recently an assistant coach under current USD Assistant Coach Mark Viramontes for the DuPage Dragons of the Central Illinois Collegiate Summer League (CICL). During his first season with the team, he helped guide them to the regular-season Co-Championship. During the season, Orozco helped the team post a franchise-best 25-19 overall record.

Prior to his work with the DuPage Dragons, Orozco has served as an assistant coach for Glendale Community College helping serve as an academic advisor and mentor to the student-athletes, while also assisting the head coach with all aspects of the game.

Orozco earned his bachelor of science degree (Mathematics) in 1999 from California Lutheran University. He also holds his two masters degrees, one in Cross-Cultural Teaching that he earned in 2002 from National University, and the other is a Masters degree in Education from the University of LaVerne that he received in 2005.

WEST COAST CONFERENCE

GONZAGA

PORTLAND

The West Coast Conference is dedicated to providing opportunities for student-athletes to achieve their fullest potential, both on the playing field and in the classroom.

The eight WCC member institutions span the western coast of the United States, from the pine forests of Eastern Washington, to the Columbia River Basin, to the dynamic San Francisco Bay Area and the sunny beaches of Southern California.

The league is characterized by the stability of its membership – only two conferences have been together longer – and its unique emphasis on combining excellence in athletics with excellence in academics.

A nationally recognized and competitive force in intercollegiate athletics, the WCC sponsors 13 sports: men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, cross country, and golf; baseball; and women's volleyball and rowing. The WCC has produced over 30 NCAA individual or team champions and numerous Academic All-Americans throughout the history of the league. Many outstanding WCC student-athletes have also gone on to excel in professional sports.

The long and rich tradition of the WCC demonstrates that success in intercollegiate athletics can be built on the foundation of values, character, and academics.

The West Coast Conference

The baseball portion of the WCC started with five charter members and three associates as LMU, Pepperdine, Saint Mary's, San Francisco and Santa Clara were joined by UC Santa Barbara, Pacific and San Jose State. The conference temporarily split from 1977-84 into the Northern and Southern California Baseball Associations (so divisional play isn't completely foreign to the league), but realigned in 1985 to include San Diego and Nevada in a seven-team league. In 1991, the Wolf Pack departed and a six-team loop existed until Portland and Gonzaga, full members in all other sports, left the Pac-10 North league to bring the WCC to its full-bodied eight-team set in 1996.

This is the eighth year of the current eight-team WCC baseball alignment but the conference has determined a champion in the sport annually since 1968. During that time, teams in the WCC have advanced to four College World Series, including a national title in 1992 (Pepperdine).

Five current members -- San Diego, Loyola Marymount, Pepperdine, San Francisco and Santa Clara -- have represented the WCC in NCAA tournament play. These five have an all-time record of 77-86 in the championships. Portland and Gonzaga are the only other current members with NCAA tourney experience, most recently Portland had made it in 1991 as the Pacific-10 North representative.

The West Coast Conference changed its league baseball format and schedule beginning in 2006. A one-division format will once again be implemented and the eight institutions will compete in a 21-game conference season. This format is a departure from a two-division format, West and Coast, with a 30-game conference schedule that has been used in the WCC since the beginning of the 1999 season. Under the one-division, 21-game format, each school will play the other seven opponents one time over the course of an eight-week conference season. Each team will play seven three-game series, with one week serving as the bye week. The top two finishing teams will play in the WCC Championship Series with the regular-season champ serving as series' host.

John Wathan (1968-70)

An All-American catcher in 1970, Wathan batted .430 with 39 RBIs and was named the team MVP. In three seasons, Wathan posted a career batting average of .347 and stole 67 bases; both remain among the best career numbers in San Diego history. He was the Kansas City Royals first selection in the 1971 January free agent draft. He played his entire 15-year professional career with the Royals and was a member of each of the Royals' six A.L. West Championship teams, as well as the World Series squads of 1980 and 1985. He began his coaching career in 1986 and was manager of the Royals from 1987-91. Having coached with the California Angels and the Boston Red Sox, the 1994 season was Wathan's 23rd in professional baseball.

Kerry Dineen (1971-73)

One of the best players to ever wear a USD uniform, Dineen starred for the Toreros from 1971-73. He was recognized as a three-time NCAA Division II All-American as an outfielder and a two-time USD team MVP. Dineen is the only San Diego player to own a career batting average above .400 (.409). After an outstanding 1973 campaign at USD, in which he hit .411, Dineen was drafted by the New York Yankees and made his major league debut on June 14, 1975. He had a brief stint on the 1976 Yankees team that went on to win the World Series, finishing his major league career in 1978 with Philadelphia.

John Cunningham (1962-1998)

No single person has done more for the USD baseball program than Hall of Fame head coach John 'J.C.' Cunningham. Directing the Toreros' program between 1964-98, Cunningham totaled 843 career victories, ranking him in the top forty in all-time victories among Division I coaches. Under his guidance, USD enjoyed sixteen winning seasons, including two World Series appearances in 1971 and 1978. Cunningham is not only in the USD Athletic Hall of Fame, but is also honored as a Hall of Famer by the American Baseball Coaches Association. His teams won 30 or more games seven times, with four of his squads advancing to post-season play. His 1971 and 1978 squads won regional titles and advanced to the Division II College World Series. He was named District VIII Coach of the Year in 1971. In 1979, the Toreros moved into the Division I ranks and later joined the West Coast Conference in 1985. Over the next 14 years, Cunningham won 343 WCC games. He was twice named the WCC Coach of the Year (1993 & 1998). USD's home field (Cunningham Baseball Stadium) is named after the legendary coach, who was essential in its construction. Cunningham was recently the recipient of the 2005 Lefty Gomez Award, one of the most prestigious awards in all of amateur baseball. He has remained involved with the USD athletic department as its Director of Transportation since his final year of coaching in 1998.

USD HAD SIX DRAFTED IN 2006 MLB DRAFT

Josh Butler

The University of San Diego baseball team had four players selected on the first day of the 2006 Major League Baseball draft. Junior right-handed pitcher Josh Butler was selected in the second round as the 47th overall selection by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, junior left-hander Nate Boman was taken in the ninth round as the 282nd overall selection by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, junior shortstop Steve Singleton was taken in the 11th round as the 336th overall selection by the Minnesota Twins and Keoni Ruth was taken in the 17th round as the 509th overall selection by the Chicago Cubs. Junior catcher Jordan Abruzzo and junior right-handed pitcher Anthony Slama were both taken in the second day of the draft. Abruzzo was a 39th round pick of the Boston Red Sox and Slama was also selected in the 39th round as the Minnesota Twins selected him.

Butler finished his most productive season in a Torero uniform in 2006 as he posted a 3.06 ERA and a record of 8-5. Butler began the season with a bang as he shutdown the hot bats of the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the season opening win against Texas. Butler threw five complete innings not allowing a single run while giving up only two hits and striking out five batters in picking up the win for the Toreros. Butler would feed on that hot start and not allow a run, earned or unearned, to cross the plate for his first 27 innings of work in the season to earn the West Coast Conference Pitcher of the Month for February. Butler would also pick up two WCC Pitcher of the Week honors throughout the season while serving as the Toreros Saturday starter.

Boman, who sat out this past season with a medical redshirt, had a solid sophomore season in which he posted 3-1 record with an ERA of 2.21 in 22 appearances before going down with a season-ending injury.

Singleton also had his most productive season as a Torero in 2006 posting career-highs in batting average at .363, hits with 89, doubles with 17, triples with two, home runs with five and RBI with 41. Singleton led the team in batting with his batting average and hits, was second on the team in doubles and was tied for second on the team in home runs with five. Singleton was one of two Toreros to be named first-team All-WCC.

Ruth was one of the Toreros best offensive and defensive payers in the 2006 season as he too posted career highs in batting average at .358, hits with 82 and RBI with 34. Ruth was the team-leader in stolen bases with 18 and was second on the team in hitting with his .358 average. Ruth hit a blistering .489 in conference play en route to being named first-team All-WCC.

Abruzzo, a 2006 All-West Coast Conference second-team honoree, finished his junior campaign with a batting average of .314, had 75 hits, a team-leading 18 doubles, eight home runs and 58 RBI. Abruzzo finished the season in stylish fashion as in the Toreros second game in the Fullerton NCAA Regional he set new program records in single-game home runs hit with three and single-game RBI with eight. Abruzzo was named to the Fullerton Regional All-Tournament team after his outstanding performances in USD's three games at the Fullerton Regional.

Slama finished his first season in a Torero uniform with a record of 2-0 and an ERA of 6.18 while making 25 appearances and two starts. Slama served USD as a mainstay in the bull pen as a closer and recorded 37 strikeouts.

Brady Clark 1992-95

John Wathan 1968-70

Mike Saipe 1992-94

In honor of the West Coast Conference celebrating its 40th season of sponsoring the sport of baseball, the conference office is proud to announce the selection of the WCC/Rawlings 40th Anniversary Baseball Team. The University of San Diego had two players, Kevin Herde (1990-93) and Kevin Reese (1997-2000), players named to the 40th Anniversary Baseball Team.

The ceremonial team consists of 40 of the top players that have graced West Coast Conference baseball diamonds over the past four decades. Only individuals from the league's current membership were eligible for selection, with primary focus placed on each player's collegiate accomplishments. The WCC/Rawlings 40th Anniversary Baseball Team was selected by a 30-member voting panel comprised of WCC administrators, league institutions, national collegiate baseball writers, and local media members.

The WCC/Rawlings 40th Anniversary Baseball Team features an impressive collection of past collegiate standouts from the conference's eight member institutions. Included on the list of honorees are 24 players that received WCC Player or Pitcher of the Year recognition during their collegiate careers, 27 All-Americans, 11 Freshman All-Americans, and two Academic All-Americans. Highlighting the compilation are 23 players that have played baseball at the Major League level, including Pepperdine alum and 1986 National League Cy Young Award winner Mike Scott, as well as former Gonzaga standout and 2004 National League Rookie of the Year Jason Bay. WCC/Rawlings 40th Anniversary Baseball Team athletes have combined to make seven Major League Baseball All-Star Game appearances, and seven players that participated in MLB games during the 2006 season are included on the list.

THE DARYL DUNN MOST INSPIRATIONAL AWARD

The University of San Diego has created the Daryl Dunn Most Inspirational award to be given out each year, beginning in 2007, to the most inspirational player on the team. The award is named after the late former USD baseball player David Dunn, who played for the Toreros from 1975-77 under Hall of Fame coach John Cunningham.

Dunn was an outstanding outfielder for the Toreros. In his freshman season he was second on the team in hitting with a .338 batting average. During his freshman season, he racked up 48 hits, had 12 doubles, four triples, two home runs and 25 RBI. During his sophomore season, Dunn saw his numbers drop a bit as he hit .234 with 32 hits, seven doubles, two home runs and 23 RBI. After his sophomore season, Dunn went to work on his own and during the summer of 1976, Dunn revived his bat as he hit .352 for National City in the CCBL, earning him All-CCBL honors. He carried that momentum into his junior year in which he returned to the top of the batters list for the Toreros. In 1978, Dunn led the team in hitting with a .364 batting average, while recording 32 hits, a team-leading 12 doubles, had one triple, one home run and 22 RBI. Dunn concluded his inspirational career for the Toreros with 78 hits, 31 doubles, five triples, five home runs and 70 RBI.

Daryl's son, David, also played baseball at USD under current head coach Rich Hill from 1999-2003. Dunn served as a pitcher for the Toreros and helped USD win back-to-back West Coast Conference championships during his final two seasons. For his career, Dunn posted a 8-3 overall record with 101 career strikeouts.

TOREROS™

The mission of the Athletic Performance Training program is to physically and mentally prepare each student athlete for the rigorous demands of championship level competition within their sport. Four primary goals define the focus of the Athletic Performance Training Program. First, to reduce the potential risk and severity of sport related injury. Second, to enhance athletic performance as measured through speed, acceleration and deceleration, power, strength, flexibility, and metabolic conditioning evaluations. Third, to develop the mental discipline required to concentrate on the task at hand and execute with confidence and poise during preparation and competition. Finally, to teach the process of achievement that requires an accountable attitude, consistent commitment, relentless effort and enthusiasm to achieve demanding goals.

Training programs are designed with a tiered priority first for general athletic development, then sport and position specific requirements are accounted for, and finally individual needs and considerations are addressed. New student athletes are orientated to the expectations and instructed on the fundamental techniques of each exercise in their program individually by a staff member during their first few weeks on campus to ensure a commitment to technique and safety is established.

Team sports nutrition education sessions are conducted to teach student athletes the concepts of energy and macronutrient requirements, meal planning, food choices, lifestyle habits and supplement use. Individualized consultation is also provided to student athletes whose goals may be to increase lean muscle or decrease body composition.

The Toreros train in the 5,000 square foot Varsity Athletic Weight Room located at the Sports Center that features 12 Olympic platforms, eight power racks, dumbbells ranging from five to 150 pounds, cardiovascular equipment, selectorized machines, core and stability training devices and is available exclusively to USD student athletes.

Sarabeth Pollock
Academic Support

Robyn Fortney
Student-Athlete Services

Sarabeth Pollock begins her second year as the Coordinator of Athletic Academic Support for the University of San Diego. She has worked as a tutor in the Athletic Department since the fall of 2001. She serves as the academic advisor for all sports except Football and Rowing. Her responsibilities include the supervision of the Study Hall and the administration of the tutoring and mentoring programs. Currently, the Academic Support Program employs over 25 tutors who represent a variety of majors across campus, as well as over 12 mentors who are graduate students pursuing their masters degrees in USD's Counseling Program. The Study Hall and computer lab are open for student-athlete use all year long; during the semester they are open 60 hours per week and provide a quiet, studious atmosphere to foster academic excellence.

Sarabeth graduated from USD in 2002 in the Honors Program, earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and History. She speaks Spanish and French fluently. A 5th generation San Diegan, she resides in Point Loma with her family. In her spare time, Sarabeth enjoys working on her novel that she hopes to have published by the end of the year.

Robyn Fortney begins her second year as the Coordinator of Athletic Student Services for USD. She coordinates the CHAMPS/Life Skills program which promotes the personal development of student-athletes. Also, she is an Academic Counselor to Football, Women's Rowing and Men's Rowing.

From nearby Rancho Bernardo, Fortney earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications, with a minor in Leadership, from USD in 2002. She was a four-year member of the USD women's basketball team between 1998-2002, including the 2000 squad that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In 2004, she received her Master's Degree in Sport Management from the University of San Francisco.

"The greatest challenge to a Division I athlete is to balance the demands of sport while taking full advantage of the educational experience offered. The purpose of our program is to assist student-athletes in meeting this challenge by offering tutoring, advising, mentoring and a quiet environment to study. The academic support program is designed to assist students in adjusting to life at USD and developing sound academic and career plans. By promoting a philosophy of individual responsibility, which encourages each student-athlete to value their educational experience, the academic support program assists each athlete to realize their full potential."

A Message From USD President Mary Lyons

Dr. Mary E. Lyons
President

The University of San Diego is very proud of the student-athletes that represent our institution on 16 men's and women's NCAA Division-I athletic teams. These are proud and serious competitors, honored to represent the University. The dedication you witness on the playing fields, on the court, on the course, or in the water is greatly matched in the classrooms, the laboratories, on stage, or in the community. Last year 34 percent of our student-athletes carried a grade-point average above 3.2, and eight of our teams had a cumulative grade-point average above 3.0.

Athletics is vital to the University of San Diego, a way students, faculty, staff and alumni come together as one community. I am both a university president and a Torero fan; I look forward to sharing the excitement of Torero athletics with our many fans.

University of San Diego Mission Statement

The University of San Diego is a Roman Catholic institution committed to advancing academic excellence, expanding liberal and professional knowledge, creating a diverse and inclusive community, and preparing leaders dedicated to ethical conduct and compassionate service.

University of San Diego Vision Statement

The University of San Diego is becoming a nationally preeminent Catholic university known for educating students who are globally competent, ethical leaders working and serving in our complex and changing world.

Core Values

The University of San Diego expresses its Catholic identity by witnessing and probing the Christian message as proclaimed by the Roman Catholic Church. The University promotes the intellectual exploration of religious faith, recruits persons and develops programs supporting the University's mission, and cultivates an active faith community. It is committed to the dignity and fullest development of the whole person. The Catholic tradition of the University provides the foundation upon which the core values listed below support the mission.

Academic Excellence

The University pursues academic excellence in its teaching, learning and research to serve the local, national and international communities. The University possesses that institutional autonomy and integrity necessary to uphold the highest standards of intellectual inquiry and academic freedom.

Knowledge

The University advances intellectual development; promotes democratic and global citizenship; cultivates an appreciation for beauty, goodness, and truth; and provides opportunities for the physical, spiritual, emotional, social, and cultural development of students. The University provides professional education grounded in these foundations of liberal learning while preparing students to understand complex issues and express informed opinions with courage and conviction.

Community

The University is committed to creating a welcoming, inclusive and collaborative community accentuated by a spirit of freedom and charity, and marked by protection of the rights and dignity of the individual. The University values students, faculty and staff from different backgrounds and faith traditions, and is committed to creating an atmosphere of trust, safety and respect in a community characterized by a rich diversity of people and ideas.

Ethical Conduct

The University provides a values-based education that informs the development of ethical judgment and behavior. The University seeks to develop ethical and responsible leaders committed to the common good who are empowered to engage a diverse and changing world.

Compassionate Service

The University embraces the Catholic moral and social tradition by its commitment to serve with compassion, to foster peace, and to work for justice. The University regards peace as inseparable from justice and advances education, scholarship and service to fashion a more humane world.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Ky Snyder was named Executive Director of Athletics at the University of San Diego on December 10th, 2003. Dr. Mary E. Lyons, USD President, introduced Snyder who returns to USD where he was Director of Athletic Development between 1990-1996. He came back to USD from the San Diego International Sports Council where he held the position of President.

With the San Diego International Sports Council, the Snyder's primary responsibility was to promote San Diego/Tijuana as the preferred region for sporting events and activities that benefit the community both economically and socially. Recent accomplishments of the Sports Council bid efforts include securing for San Diego the 1997 and 1998 ESPN Summer X Games, the Suzuki Rock 'n' Roll Marathon, the 1999 Major League Soccer All-Star Game, the inaugural Bank of America/U.S. Olympic Cup, NCAA Division I Men's Basketball First & Second Round (2001) contests, the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championships (2001) and Super Bowl XXXVII.

In the spring of 2001, Snyder was named the President of the San Diego Super Bowl XXXVII Host Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the San Diego NFL Youth Education Town and the San Diego Super Bowl Task Force. Snyder was also the Executive Director of the San Diego International Sports Foundation.

Prior to joining the SDISC, Snyder was the Director of Athletic Development at the University of San Diego for six years. At USD he was responsible for establishing the Torero Athletic Association, fund-raising efforts for athletics, managing athletic special events and generating corporate sponsorship of athletics.

At USD he oversees an athletic department with sixteen NCAA Division I intercollegiate teams and approximately 400 student-athletes. He is responsible for all administrative, management and supervisory aspects of the Department of Athletics. Additionally, he oversees the strategic long-range planning and monitoring of budgets, personnel, programs, facilities, fundraising, promotions and marketing, and public relations for an NCAA Division I program consisting of eight sports for men and eight sports for women. He serves on the NCAA Division I Football Rules Committee, the West Coast Conference TV Committee, Marketing Committee and Women's Basketball Committee.

Snyder played football at San Diego State University. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing from San Diego State University and has studied in the Master's Leadership Program at the University of San Diego. He is a guest lecturer at the University of San Diego's MBA Sports Management program and the SDSU Hospitality Management program.

Snyder, who has been a San Diego resident for 24 years, has a very athletic family. His wife, Sue, was a former standout member of the United States women's national volleyball team who played at San Diego State and also coached the Aztecs and University of San Diego's women's volleyball teams. In addition, Snyder's father, Lester, held the position as President of the United States Tennis Association. The Snyder's reside in Poway with their son Riley (age 13), daughter Sydney (age 10) and daughter Cammy (age 7).

TOREROS DEFINED...

The University of San Diego, which sponsors sixteen NCAA Division I intercollegiate teams, competes under the athletic nickname 'Toreros.' In 1961, the Most Reverend Bishop Buddy, the founding father of USD, announced that the school's nickname would change from Pioneers to Toreros. "The name Toreros is keeping with the friendly relationship which exists between San Diego and Mexico," His Excellency said at the time. Torero comes from the Spanish term 'Toro', the bull, and from the word 'Torear,' to fight bulls. All of the contestants in the ring are called 'Toreros.' Torero is a general term describing a bullfighter and signifies courage, honor and fidelity. USD student-athletes, like the Torero, represent a willingness to stand alone in the ring and accept the challenge. The 2005-06 school year marks the 45th season with Toreros as the official nickname for USD athletic teams.

NCAA Compliance

I want to play Division I intercollegiate athletics at San Diego...

What do I need to do in order to play at USD as a freshman?

If you intend to participate in Division I or II athletics as a freshman, you must register and be certified by the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse. Your high school counselors should provide you with a student-release form and a brochure titled, "NCAA Guide for the College-Bound Student-Athlete." In order to be registered with the clearinghouse, you must complete the student-release form and mail the top (white) copy of the form to the clearinghouse along with the $50 registration fee. Give the yellow and pink copies of the form to a high-school official, who then sends the yellow copy, along with an official copy of your high-school transcript that includes your SAT or ACT score(s), to the clearinghouse. Your high school should keep the pink copy for its files. You may also register online at www.ncaaclearinghouse.net. After graduation and before the school closes for the summer, your school also must send the clearinghouse a copy of your final transcript that confirms graduation from high school. Your counselors can obtain registration materials, at no cost, by calling the clearinghouse at (319) 337-1492.

How do I know if I'm being recruited?

You become a "prospective student-athlete" when you start ninth-grade classes. Before the ninth grade, you become a prospective student-athlete if a college gives you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide prospective students generally. You become a "recruited prospective student-athlete" at a particular college if any coach approaches you (or any member of your family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college. Activities by coaches that cause you to become a recruited prospective student-athlete are (1) providing you with an official visit; (2) placing more than one telephone call to you or any other member of your family; or (3) visiting you or any other member of your family anywhere other than the college campus.

Boosters: In addition to general recruiting regulations, no alumni, boosters or representatives of a college's athletics interests can be involved in your recruitment. There can be no phone calls or letters from boosters. If a USD booster is contacting you, please call the San Diego Compliance Office as soon as possible at (619) 260-7577. Don't risk your NCAA eligibility!

When can I talk to the coach and have him/her see me play?

Telephone Calls: In all sports other than football, phone calls from staff members (but not boosters) are not permitted until July 1 after completion of your junior year. In sports other than football, one telephone call to a prospect may be made during March of the prospect's junior year in high school. In both men's and women's basketball, one telephone call to a prospect may be made on or after June 21 following the prospect's junior year. Only three calls to a prospect may be made in July following a prospect's junior year, with no more than one call per week. In Football, a prospect may receive one phone call in May of the prospects junior year in high school and may start receiving additional calls after September 1 of your senior year. After this, a college coach is limited to one telephone call per week to you (or your parents or legal guardians), except that unlimited calls to you (or your parents or legal guardians) may be made under the following circumstances: (1) during the five days immediately before your official visit by the college you will be visiting; (2) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with you by that coach; (3) on the initial date for signing the National Letter of Intent in your sport through two days after the initial signing date; and (4) you (or your parents) may telephone a coach at your expense as often as you wish. After a National Letter of Intent is signed, unlimited calls may be placed to the prospect.

Off-Campus Contacts: A college coach may contact you in person off the college campus only on or after July 1 after the completion of your junior year in high school. In sports other than football, one in-person, off-campus contact with a prospect is allowed during April of the prospect's junior year of high school. The contact must take place on the prospect's high school campus and follow restrictions on the sport's recruiting calendar. A contact is any face-to-face meeting between a college coach or athletics staff member and you or your parents, during which any of you say more than "hello." Also, any such face-to-face meeting that is prearranged or that takes place on your campus, at an organized competition or practice involving you or your high school, preparatory school, two-year college or all-star team shall be considered a contact, regardless of the conversation. Currently in all sports other than football, college coaches may contact you off the college campus no more than three times. However, a college coach may visit your high school (with the approval of your high school principal) only once a week during contact period.

Evaluations: An evaluation is any off-campus activity used to assess your academic qualifications or athletics ability, including a visit to your high school (during which no contact occurs) or watching you practice or compete at any site. Currently in all sports other than football and basketball, a college coach is limited to seven opportunities (contacts and evaluations combined) to recruit you and not more than three of the seven opportunities may be contacts. In basketball, coaches have a limit of five opportunities with which to recruit you (contact and evaluations combined) off the college campus. Not more than three of those five opportunities may be contacts. In football, a coach has three evaluation opportunities and six contact opportunities. Once you sign a National Letter of Intent, you may be evaluated an unlimited number of times by a college coach from the college with which you have signed.

Letters: Letters and printed recruiting information may be sent to you starting September 1st at the beginning of your junior year in high school. However, you may still contact a university prior to this date to receive general (non-athletic related) information. You may also complete an athletic questionnaire prior to this date.

What Can I Receive from San Diego?

You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangement, such as cash, clothing, camp, improper expenses, transportation, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or attend an NCAA college. The University of San Diego may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. The institution can recommend that this aid be renewed each year, as is the general practice at the University of San Diego.

Who do I contact with any Questions on Eligibility?

You may contact Shaney Fink, USD's Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance and Administration at 619-260-5931 or by email at fink@sandiego.edu.
